

Student Discipline Policy

Source of Obligation	The NSW Registration Manual (3.7.1 and 3.7.2) requires the School to have policies relating to discipline of students attending the School that are based on principles of procedural fairness and that do not permit corporal punishment of students.
Discipline Policy	Every student has the right to a learning environment free from bullying and intimidation and to feel safe and happy at school. They also have the right to be treated fairly and with dignity. Discipline is necessary to ensure the safety and welfare of all our students, teachers and staff and to provide a conducive learning environment. This policy sets the framework through which Glennaeon Rudolf Steiner School manages student discipline.

Strategies to Promote Good Discipline	The School seeks to develop a culture of positive discipline by setting clear expectations of students and encouraging positive behaviour. Strategies for developing this culture include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• clearly setting behaviour expectations• establishing specific teaching and learning programs• communicating expectations with the wider School community• acknowledging positive behaviours in a range of ways from informal verbal acknowledgement through to structured merit awards• maintaining records with respect to student behaviour.
Prohibition of Corporal Punishment	It is our policy that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• we prohibit corporal punishment• we do not explicitly or implicitly sanction the administering of corporal punishment by non-school persons, including parents, to enforce discipline at the School. The use of any corporal punishment by a staff member is strictly prohibited. Any staff member who breaches this rule will be subject to disciplinary proceedings which may include dismissal.

Procedural Fairness	Students have a right to procedural fairness in dealings that involve their interests. This includes disciplinary decisions. The principles of procedural fairness include the right of students to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• know what the rules are and what behaviour is expected of them• have decisions determined by a reasonable and unbiased person• be informed of, and have an opportunity to respond to, any allegations against them• be heard before a decision is made• have a decision reviewed (but not to delay an immediate punishment). Glenaeon Rudolf Steiner School is committed to ensuring procedural fairness when disciplining a student.
School Rules and Expected Standards of Behaviour	Students are expected to abide by the rules of the School, and the directions of teachers and staff. Examples of written rules that students are expected to follow are dealt with in: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Student Code of Conduct• Insert Link to School Rules Bullying Prevention and Intervention• Student Use of Illicit Drugs• here

Consequences	There are a range of consequences that students will face if they breach School rules or are disobedient. These include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• warnings or reprimands (verbal or written)• time outs• clean up duties• cancellation of privileges• withdrawal from School activities• detentions• suspension• expulsion• exclusion. A decision to suspend or expel a student may only be made by the Deputy Head of School or the Head of School.
