Senior Student Wellbeing Coordinator

(Permanent Full-time)

- Unique leadership opportunity supporting student wellbeing across K–12
- Collaborative role working with a dedicated team
- Salary packaging available

Glenaeon is an independent Steiner school offering a holistic curriculum from Pre-School to Year 12 that meets and enriches the NSW syllabus requirements.

Our educational philosophy and practices were developed by and evolves out of the work of Rudolf Steiner. Our approach to learning encourages expansive thinking, development of the living spirit and profound connection to the wisdom of the past, realities for the present and possibilities of future.

As the first Steiner School in Australia, Glenaeon has a fine heritage of pioneering work in innovative education dating back to our origins in 1957. We now educate up to 500 students from Preschool to Year 12 across three campuses at Castlecrag, Middle Cove and Willoughby on Sydney's Lower North Shore.

We are seeking an experienced and compassionate Senior Student Wellbeing Coordinator to lead and manage student wellbeing support across the School. This important leadership role provides strategic oversight of student case management, mental health and wellbeing interventions, risk management processes, and collaborative support for students, families and staff.

Reporting to the Head of Student Support Services K–12 and working closely with academic and pastoral leaders, the Senior Student Wellbeing Coordinator ensures students receive appropriate and timely wellbeing support. The role also contributes to the ongoing development of Glenaeon's wellbeing framework and broader student wellbeing initiatives.

This is a rewarding opportunity for a qualified wellbeing professional who is passionate about supporting young people and fostering a connected, inclusive and thriving school community.

Essential requirements for this role:

- Tertiary qualifications in Psychology, Counselling, Social Work or a related mental health discipline.
- Demonstrated experience supporting children and young people with wellbeing and mental health needs.
- Strong leadership, case management and risk assessment skills.
- Highly developed interpersonal, communication and relationship-building abilities.
- Experience working collaboratively with families, educators and external professionals.
- Ability to manage complex and sensitive matters with professionalism, discretion and confidentiality.

- Commitment to child safety and student wellbeing.
- School-based experience will be highly regarded.

Salary for this role is dependent on qualifications and experience and will be aligned with the Independent Schools NSW (Professional and Operational Staff) Cooperative Multi-Enterprise Agreement 2025. The successful candidate must hold, or be eligible to obtain, a current Working with Children Check prior to commencement.

To enquire or apply for this position, please complete our Employment Application Form and attach a cover letter & resume, or apply via SEEK. Please contact 9932 2300 or humanresources@glenaeon.nsw.edu.au for further information or confidential discussion. Applications will be reviewed and processed as they are received.

Glenaeon is proudly a child-safe organisation.
